REQUEST FOR APPEAL HEARING

General Instructions: In accordance with Section 130 of the Water Management Sediment Control (WMSC) Regulations, the Appeals Board allows an appeal by applicants for WMSC Permits aggrieved by, or any person receiving a Notice of Violation or property owners who allege damages resulting directly from a decision of the Clermont County Building Inspection Department. Upon receiving the appeal request from the applicant, a Board Hearing will be scheduled, depending on the availability of the Board. Complete the form below with all information required. Please state clearly the specific items in the Violation Letter to be appealed. Along with this form, include with the a copy of the Notice of Violation (if applicable) and a check or money order for $100.00 made payable to the Clermont County Treasurer for the hearing appeal, to the address listed below.
